THREATENING TO REPUDIATE DEBTS

Threat Is Contained In a Communication Sent
To Conference.

TRY TO RECONCILE
DIVERGENT VIEWS

France Wants Stern Terms
For Russia, Britain For Moderation.

Genoa, April 29.—At the very moment the allied experts were meeting to day to effect a reconciliation between the French and British policies with regard to Russia, the Russian delegates themselves took a hand in the situation by sending a communication to Premier Sacta, president of the conference, in which they threatened to fall back on their original position of repudiating war debts.

The Russian communication provided a sensation in conference circles. Hope was uppermost in the minds of the Genoa statesmen today when the sub-committee dealing with Russian affairs met again to attempt the delicate task of reconciling the widely divergent views of Great Britain and France.

Underneath the hope that lay upon the minds of many quarters, the experts will be unable to make the adjustment required. Adding to the feeling of gloom was the impending departure of Lewis Barthou, head of the French delegation, who goes to Paris tonight to report to Premier Poincare and the recalcitrant French cabinet.

Lineup Is Unchanged
The opinion is freely expressed in Genoa that M. Barthou will not return to Genoa, once he reaches Paris. His own differences with Premier Poincare are considerable. The French leader himself, however, says he will come back.

The lineup in the sub-committee today was the same that has existed since the conference began 20 days ago—France, with the support of Belgium, holding out for stern terms to Russia, and Great Britain, with the support of Italy counselling moderation. The smaller fry among the nations of Europe gathered here, are divided between these schools of thought.

The Russians themselves and the Germans are playing the role of interested onlookers.

The drafts of the French and British policies on Russia were before the sub-committees again today. The differences between them can best be epitomized by stating that France demands absolute guarantee with respect to Russia's repayment of the war debt and protection of private property, while Great Britain favors diminution of the war debt and less stringent terms about returns of foreign property seized by the Soviet government.

SECTION HAND INJURED,
SUES RAILWAY COMPANY

John Spasato of Leetonia has brought suit in common pleas court against the Pennsylvania Railway company for $5,000 damages, claiming that while carrying out the orders of a section foreman he suffered a double rupture and had his left leg injured. The accident occurred Dec. 16, 1921, at Leetonia.

The petition charges that on that date he with other workmen had a hand on a bridge and that it was loaded up with tools and other articles that made the car heavy and difficult to handle in removing it from the track upon the approach of a train. The excess weight is said to have been 200 pounds, making the car and its load weigh about 900 pounds.

While at work an extra train appeared on the track and the workmen had to hurry to get the car out of the road, and in lifting Spasato claimed he suffered the injuries complained of. It is alleged that the loading up of the car was in violation of the rules laid down by the company and that it was negligence upon the part of the foreman.

Poison Pen Letter
Warns Chalfant To Cease Booze Raids

Safety Director Says Law
Will Be Enforced Despite Threats.

The life of Safety Director A. H. Chalfant has been threatened unless he discontinues his rigid law enforcement campaign.

This warning, dated April 23, was received Friday afternoon by Chalfant through the mail.

The threat, printed in red ink on a piece of paper torn from a memorandum book and indicating an attempt to disguise the writing of the sender, was signed with a pierced heart. A black border was drawn around the envelope and pierced hearts were drawn in red ink on the envelope.

Chalfant believes the warning was sent from some person who had been dealing in liquor and was compelled to stop operations by the activities of the police.

Undisturbed By Threat
Undisturbed by the threat on his life, Safety Director Chalfant is determined to carry out the mayor's orders to run "bootleggers" out of the city.

HIGH SCHOOL

State Education Director
Declares Courses Will Be Changed.

Columbus, April 29.—Ohio high school students are to have their courses planned and organized for them hereafter in such a way as to give the maximum amount of education good to all, not merely to those expecting to enter college. Director of Education Vernon M. Riegel declared today.

The announcement followed the recommendation of a committee of Ohio educators appointed by the director some time ago to study and consider a program of studies for high schools.

Members of this committee, who were unanimous in the approval of plans and policies recommended, were: Charles H. Lake, Cleveland; F. M. Steelton, Elvira; Paul Stetson, Dayton; Wilson Hawkins, Canton; H. R. McVey, Marion; W. H. Rice, London; J. G. Collicott, Columbus; J. R. Condon, Cincinnati; and Charles S. Meek, Toledo.

"A certain number of majors, minors and consonants has been required for all pupils, regardless of their ability or interests. There is a general feeling among leading educators of the state that the boy, even though he desired to become a cabinet-maker, a mechanic or a farmer, was entitled to four years of training, beyond the elementary school, as much as the boy who desired to enter a classical college.

"There was no doubt that he should have opportunity to do in high school the work which is in accord with his needs. The requirement that all pupils must conform to the required majors minors and consonants, which were the core of the classical college preparatory course was a bar to those who desired to do intensive industrial work."

It was agreed by the committee that all high school courses should be so planned and organized to meet the needs of all high school students in the community, and that each particular course must be approved by the director of education in order that the school may be continued as a recognized school by the department of education.

College Club Here Tonight
To Give Benefit Play

The cast of "Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh" which will be presented in the High school auditorium Saturday night by the Scrollers Dramatic club of Ohio State university, is composed almost wholly of actors and actresses skilled in amateur theatricals through previous experience in college dramas.

The club is coming to Salem under the auspices of the Kiwanis club for the benefit of the Boy and Girl Scout movement in this city. Mrs. W. O. Thompson, wife of the president of the university, is official chaperon of the club and will accompany it on its trip here.

Playing the title role is Georgia Backus, who through her entire college career as well as in the South High school of Columbus has won commendable comment from critics of the professional stage who have seen her perform.

Heath Wood as Geoffrey Rayson comes with as extensive an experience as any in the cast. He has played for the last three years in the Scarlet Mask musical comedy club of the university. Critics declare him to be among the first rank and on a business and enforce the law in every respect. Chalfant said:

"At first I thought the warning was a joke but after considering the contents I have come to the conclusion that it is an attempt by someone to put an end to police activities in rounding up bootleggers."

"Probably the warning is all bluff but regardless I am going to see that police continue their raids with the same regularity that has been so pronounced in the last month when a record for fines from bootleggers was established in Mayor John W. Post's court."

Mayor Post stated Saturday that he had received no threatening letters Friday but that he has been the victim of several anonymous letters telling him to be careful in the conduct of his administration.

Violates Postal Laws
The first thought that the threat was sent as a joke was dispelled Saturday by postoffice authorities who pointed out that the sending of threatening letters through the mails is punishable with a fine not to exceed $5,000 and a prison sentence.

Police authorities are working on the case and are following every lead to bring the sender to justice.

State's Fire
Losses Show
Big Decrease

Columbus, April 29.—That Ohio's aggregate loss from fires was lowered $2,689,545 last year, compared with 1920, and that credit for this decrease is due to "fire prevention education, carefulness and inspection by uniform firemen" are declarations contained in a statement by State Marshal Dykeman.

"The total number of fires last year was 5,696, as against 5,835 in 1920, while the loss last year was $11,218,429 as against $13,907,974 the preceding year," said Marshal Dykeman.

"If we continue thinking and practicing simple fire prevention, we should reduce the loss still further this year in spite of the enormous buildings being erected."

Camden, N. J., April 29.—Two men are under arrest today charged with the murder of "Honest John" Brunen, wealthy circus owner who was slain with a shot gun at his home, Riverside, on the night of March 10.

They are Harry Mohr, Camden, Brunen's brother-in-law, and Charles M. Powell, Indianapolis. Powell was arrested two weeks ago by County Detective Ellis Parker, and was held secretly in the Mt. Molly jail until today when he made a confession, which resulted in the arrest of Mohr, according to the police.

Powell formerly was connected with the "Mighty Doris" shows of which Brunen was sole owner and Mohr was business manager of the circus. Mohr has been under suspicion since the night of the murder. Detective Parker said today. The circus has been showing in Philadelphia this week under Mohr's management.

RAYEN TEAM
WINS DEBATE
FROM SALEM

Salem Boys Present Good
Arguments But Fail
On Rebuttal.

Defending the preferential shop where union men and non-union men work side by side with the union men having the benefit in that they regulate the working conditions and the wage question, Salem High School boys lost to the Rayen team of Youngstown Friday night at Youngstown on the question "Resolved, That the application of the principle of the open shop would be to the advantage of the American people."

The decision of the three judges, Rev. W. E. Hamaker of Youngstown, Supt. Cash of Girard school, and Mr. Bishop of Youngstown sent the Rayen team in favor of the Rayen affirmative team. Salem debaters took the negative.

Rayen's debating team delivered their arguments in a forceful manner bringing out the point that collective bargaining could be brought about as easily in an open shop as in a closed shop where union men only are employed. They also advanced principles which demand non-organized labor.

Fail on Rebuttal
Salem debaters upheld the preferential shop which is regulated by union principle but allows non-union workers to be employed. They sought to show that the preferential shop is more beneficial because all positions are first taken by union workers and if no more union men of one craft are available it is permissible to hire non-union men who work under the union wage scale and abide by conditions of the unions.

The Salem debating team consisted of George Bunn, Kay Liber, Dallas Hanna and Edward Heck as alternates, according to the decision of the judges had the better constructed arguments but fell down on the rebuttal.

No more debates will be held this year but efforts will be made by local and Youngstown school authorities to form a triangular debating league next year to include Youngstown, Canton, McKinley and Salem.

LINES IS THREATENED

East Liverpool, April 29.—Judge John H. Worley in common pleas court, Lisbon handed down a decision refusing the application of Buzz Thorne, president of Division No. 52 Amalgamated Association of Iron and Electric Railway Employees of America, for a temporary injunction to restrain the Stenberville, East Liverpool and Beaver Valley Traction Co., from terminating the agreement with the union.

The decision means a complete stoppage of street railway service on the line of the Stenberville, East Liverpool and Beaver Valley Traction Co. (W. Va.) division, and also on the Vancort (Pa.) Stenberville interurban road Monday midnight, when the present wage contract expires.

The traction company has refused to treat with the union.

Terror Prevails As Result
Of Killing; Anarchy
Is Feared.

Dublin, April 29.—Official announcement of the collapse of the Irish truce conference was made today. The peace makers failed utterly to reach an agreement.

A report was issued decriing the Cork outrages and expressing the hope that the perpetrators of the crimes that have shocked all Ireland will be apprehended.

The view prevailing among leaders of all factions is that unless measures are soon taken to stop the disorders in Ireland the country is threatened with a virtual state of anarchy in which British troops would have to return to restore order.

London, April 29.—Terror prevails in West Cork today as a result of the killing that has featured the last 48 hours of the strife between the warring Irish factions, according to a dispatch to the Evening News today.

Many males are leaving the district. There was scattered shooting today.

CITY REMOVES STEPS
LEADING TO BANK AND
BASEMENT RESTAURANT

Youngstown, April 29.—Promptly at 12:01 a. m. today—the time limit set in Mayor Oles' ultimatum to property owners on the "diamond" to remove obstructions from city property—away the stairs leading to the banking offices of the Central Savings bank and the stairway leading to Chelekis restaurant in the basement of the same building at the west side of the public square.

The approaches to the basement were filled with slag after the owner and patrons of the restaurant had been notified to vacate. Every approach to the bank and restaurant was cut off. The work was carried out under heavy police guard.

Removal of obstructions from city property has been a bone of contention for years. Mayor Oles' action brought the issue to a head which will probably lead to a test suit.

The stairs were erected about 20 years ago under ordinance granting permission. The ordinance was recently revoked.

Hopetown, Ill., April 29.—The arrest of a man in connection with the "parsonage murder" of Miss Gertrude Hanna was promised today by Jack Bogart, chief of police.

The man sought was said by Bogart to be "the one who helped the murderer take the body to the parsonage."

State Attorney John H. Lewman and Sheriff Charles N. Knox left today for Danville, this county seat, where they said they would ask for two grand jury indictments, one against John C. Weyman, former fiance of the slain girl, and for another man. The grand jury will begin its session Monday.

TAXES PARAMOUNT
PROBLEM IN STATE,
SAYS THOMPSON

Gubernatorial Candidate Gives Pledges In His First Address.

DECLARES STRICT
ECONOMY IS NEED

"No Time For Experiment"
With Peoples' Money,
Thompson Says.

Cleveland, April 29.—"I will marshal my political experience as a state and national, my business experience and such mental endowment as God has given me to give this state and the people thereof a successful businesslike administration of their affairs."

This pledge from the peroration of the speech of Col. Carmi A. Thompson, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, was heard last night by 2,500 Republicans, representing 24 counties, gathered at the "dollar dinner" at Masonic temple and brought hearty applause to the man believed to be the choice of the national administration in the test of strength coming in Ohio this fall between the Republican and Democratic parties.

Will Accept Responsibility
"I will be the governor of all the people. I will recognize the necessity of conference, but there can be but one head of this great business organization, and when I assume the office, I will be the head, seeking light from whatever source it may be obtained, but in the end the exercise of judgment will be my own and I will accept responsibility for every act of the chief executive. My administration will be in the interest and for the benefit of all the people," the candidate added.

This was Col. Thompson's first political speech since he announced his candidacy several weeks ago. As in his statement at that time he stressed the national features of the campaign, declaring it to be necessary to uphold the hands of the president and speaking strongly of his own belief in party responsibility for government.

"The history of the United States for the last 60 years has been the history of the Republican party," he asserted.

Taxes Paramount
Turning to state affairs, he discussed briefly a number of issues. "The paramount issue," he said, "is the method of raising and fair distribution of the taxes." For a decade, he declared, taxation has been a football of politics, but today it appears no nearer solution than it was 10 years ago. In framing a tax law, he said, the legislature should take advantage of "the best thought and most mature judgment," and seek counsel of the "best minds" in business, agriculture and labor.

Declaring for strict economy in administration, Col. Thompson said, "this is no time for experiment with the people's money upon hallucinations, fads or fancies."

Other State Issues
The Democratic reorganization measure, passed with an emergency clause at the legislative session of 1921, was held to be "a step in advance," although he admitted the present law "is doubtless imperfect," but when adjusted to "meet such weakness as its operation may disclose, it will prove a great power for good."

Other plans in the platform are: "Equal, fair and rigid enforcement of all laws."

Construction of more highways as "the immediate and most striking benefit" that can be brought to the farmer.

Continuation of the present workmen's compensation law.

CITY TENSLEY AWAITS
RESULTS OF CHINESE
BATTLE WAGED AT DAWN

Pekin, April 29.—Pekin today tensely awaited the result of a great battle which opened at dawn south of here with the inauguration of Wu Pei Fu's drive for Peking.

The roar of the big guns located from 12 to 25 miles away has been heard here continuously since early morning.

Chang Tso-Ling's forces are strongly entrenched and occupy strategic positions on a wide semicircle south of Peking.

While Wu Pei Fu's forces are arranged that the battle developing today may be directed either toward Tien Tsin or Peking, it is believed the full force of the smash will be midway between the two cities with the objective of cutting connections between the two cities and dividing the army of Chang Tso-Ling.

Thirty thousand men are engaged in the drive being prosecuted by Gen. Wu.

Payments Made In Blood

MELANCHOLY satisfaction is to be found in the claim that Ohio's automobiles are not more deadly, proportionately, than elsewhere in the country. This fact is established by comparison with other states having registration. Though fourth in population, Ohio was fifth in the number of deaths from the cause named, although the number of machines here is perhaps the largest in the United States.

Still, about two lives were rudely ended every day in the year 1929, upon which these statistics are based, the total being 717. In New York 1,410 were killed; in Pennsylvania, 1,042; in Illinois, 728 and in California, 734. Comparisons with the past show that these fatalities have doubled since 1915, the increase keeping step with the growth in the number of motor cars used. Undoubtedly there was a substantial increase in 1931.

As for injuries—minor and serious—resulting from this cause, they are to be counted only by the thousands, and the total is beyond conjecture. Only a portion is to be secured from the accident insurance companies and the hospitals, but even this fragment is illuminative in disclosing an appalling state of affairs. It is no exaggeration to repeat the assertion that this vehicle is more deadly than war itself.

There is no gainsaying the immense advantage this modern invention has furnished to humanity in a hundred different directions. This is a self-evident fact. Yet it seems that a portion of the pay for these betterments must be tendered in the form of death and suffering on the part of thousands every succeeding year. Eventually, beyond question, there will come a correction of this condition but how or when it now cannot be stated. Time and experience alone will bring about the proper adjustments and establish the new factors for the preservation of life and limb. Meanwhile the terrible toll to speed and human carelessness is taken.

Filling a Great Need

THE NEWS believes that if one were in a position to find the query "what does the church do for the country?" and the entire country were able to give assurance that unless the answer were favorable you would be in a position to close the doors of all the churches and bring to a termination all church activities you would get a general response from agitated millions.

These millions, no matter whether they have church affiliations or not, would not want the church to be put out of business. The real estate man, the merchant, the banker, the manufacturer, the farmer the laborer, the judge, the lawyer, the student and the philosopher would all come begging you to keep the doors open. No sensible man would want to live in any community in the United States from which had been removed all the constructive safeguards which civilization receives from the church.

Men love to find fault with it and doubtless it isn't all it ought to be but when you come to answer the question as to what the country would do without it you simply can't answer it.

TWO HUSBANDS, THREE WIVES GIVEN DIVORCES

Mrs. Stella First of Salem, was granted a divorce by Judge Moore Friday from Clyde S. First, the divorce being entered on grounds of extreme cruelty.

A cross petition filed by the defendant in the case was dismissed by the court and the alimony question was settled out of court. The parties were married at Salem in 1901 and have no children.

Harry Johnson of Columbiana, was given a divorce from his wife, Alice to whom he was married 20 years ago in Youngstown. Their only child, a son, is now 18 years old. The divorce was granted because of the wife's absence of the wife, Johnson stating to the court that she has been absent from home since 1911.

Mrs. Nora George presented her application for a divorce from John George and the same was granted. The Georges were married in Sebring on May 12, eight years ago, and there were no children born to them. The wife charged failure to provide and stated that her husband left her a little over two years ago.

The divorce action of Charles W. Heim of Leetonia, against Anna Oehle Heim, which was heard by Judge Worley a few days ago and taken under advisement, was granted by him on Friday, the marriage being annulled. Heim has been ordered by the court to pay the defendant $200 alimony. The parties were married last September in Lisbon and have been living near Leetonia.

Mrs. Margaret O. Easterday of East Liverpool, was given a divorce in court from Grover Easterday on grounds of gross neglect of duty and failure to provide a home. The wife also charged extreme cruelty stating to the court that he had struck her several times.

CORN AND SOYBEANS AS COMPANION CROPS

That soybeans may be profitably grown with corn for silage or other feed is shown by an extensive series of experiments conducted on the State University farm at Columbus by specialists of the department of farm crops, and reported in the May-June monthly bulletin of the Ohio Experiment station. Wooster, in making the tests, corn and soybean were planted alone and in combinations, both in drills and checked rows and at different dates and rates of seeding.

"The only practical way of combining corn and soybeans," the authors state, "is to drill the two together in the same row at the same time." This should be done early at the usual rate for corn with the beans added at the rate of 4 to 6 inches in the row, using 4 to 12 pounds of beans per acre depending on the size of seed.

Early, tall-growing, late-maturing varieties, such as the Peking, Virginia, and Wilson are recommended. The soybeans must be inoculated or they will compete with the corn for nitrogen.

Columbus, April 25.—Proposed tax amendment to the constitution, one limiting the rate on real estate to 15 mills and the other limiting debt, which are to go on the ballot in November, if enough signatures are obtained, have been whittled into final shape. HOPES TO REFORM FIRST OFFENDERS

ATTORNEY GENERAL HAS A PLAN FOR PENAL INSTITUTION AT CAMP GRANT, ILL.

WOULD RECLAIM YOUNG MEN

Early Experience of Mr. Daugherty
Leads Him to Believe Most of Them
Can Be Brought Back to Honest Lives.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—A good many years ago Attorney General Daugherty, then a lawyer in private practice, became interested in four boys who appeared in court charged with a first and somewhat trivial offense. He intervened for them, sentence was suspended and later through the instrumentality of Mr. Daugherty the boys were given a chance to make good. All of them rose to responsible positions in life. They made good.

It seems likely that this personal interest in first offenders and in the chance of their salvation has induced the chief law officer of the government to recommend that an industrial and penal institution shall be established at Camp Grant, Ill., for convicted first offenders against the federal law. President Harding has given the plan his sanction.

The bare news of the proposal already has been printed. It may not be uninteresting to know that criminalologists think that, if the records could be obtained in full and studied carefully, it would be found there are fewer young second offenders against the federal law than there are against the state laws.

Of course nearly every federal law has a state law somewhat similar to it, and perhaps a better way to put the matter would be to say that the belief seems to be that in proportion to numbers, more first offenders who have served terms in federal prisons are reclaimed than first offenders who have served their terms in state prisons.

Look Lightly on Some Laws.

There are certain offenses against the federal law which to some easy-going minds do not appear to be offenses at all. Men and women who would not steal a postage stamp, even if its theft was to save them a walk of five miles to a post office, will try to beat the government's tariff laws and are not at all conscience-stricken apparently when they succeed in beating its prohibitions.

There are hundreds of first offenders against the federal government who have looked at certain of the statutes as having been made to be broken. There probably are a great many young men in the federal prisons who do not realize today that their crime really was a crime. Instead of being criminals some of these young men simply have a warped moral viewpoint. This seems to be understood by some of the present prison officials of the government and by men in office elsewhere.

It seems likely that the attorney general is overconfident when he says nine out of ten of the first offenders can be reclaimed. There probably is no such record of salvation as this to be found in any of the reformatory institutions in the United States. It is said that straightaway prisons where close confinement and hard labor are the rules do not reform a fifth of their inmates. If state reformatories are able to bring back into the fold of grace one-half of the black sheep which have broken away, the officials probably consider that their work justifies itself many times over.

Danger of Favoritism.

It has not yet been decided whether the recommendation for the legislation to make the Camp Grant institution possible shall include in it a provision that the first offenders shall be sent by the courts to existing federal prisons, or whether the offenders shall be sent direct to the reformatory.

There seems to be a division of opinion in this matter. If the matter of the selection of federal prisoners in the regular institutions for transfer to the reformatory shall be left in the hands of the wardens, favoritism may play its part. On the other hand, if this course is followed an opportunity would be given to determine which of the prisoners are best fitted for early reformatory methods.

If all the first offenders are to be sent to the reformatory direct from the scene of sentence it might receive men past reform and whose example would make difficult the reformation of others more susceptible to guiding influences.

It is not known yet in Washington definitely what strength of opposition will develop to the plan for turning Camp Grant into a reformatory, but it seems likely today that authority will be given for the establishment of this school prison.

The Dread Alternative.

The Old-Timer.—Yes, I've wandered over a good bit of the world, but I finally came back here, to my little old home town, 'cause I want to die here.

The Stranger.—So would I, rather than live here.

In New York.

"So they had those criminals cooped up in a house and the police fired?"
"Yes, and it's all bunk about New York policemen not being able to shoot. Plenty of them hit the house."

PAINS SO BAD WOULD GO TO BED

Two Women Tell How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Stopped Their Suffering

Iron Mountain, Mich.—"I had terrible pains every month and at times had to go to bed on account of them. I saw your advertisement and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with very good results. I can work all day long now at my sick time. You may use these facts as a testimonial and I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends."—Mrs. A. H. GARLAND, 218 E. Brown St., Iron Mountain, Michigan.

Xenia, Ohio.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of my abdomen that I could not lie quietly in bed. I suffered for about five years that way and I was not regular either. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women, so I decided to try it. It surely has helped me a lot, as I have no pains now and am regular and feeling fine."—Mrs. MARY DALE, Route 7, Xenia, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women's ailments. It is especially adapted to relieve women. If you suffer as did Mrs. Garland or Mrs. Dale, you should give this well-known medicine a thorough trial.

What God Says about-CHEMISTRY

"Though your sins be as scarlet they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool."

That's chemistry. God is here pointing to a chemical solution into which any man's sins may be poured, no matter how scarlet or how crimson, with the result that they will come out pure white. That solution is the blood of Jesus Christ, shed nearly two thousand years ago, but as effective now to change the darkness of sins to the whiteness of purity as when the dying thief alongside the dying Lord first proved its efficacy.

"Though YOUR sins"—yes, yours, my friend. And more than that, there is no chemistry that will do it. And if you go into eternity with your sins scarlet, instead of white, there's judgment and eternal death for you. But you need not do so, for the fountain for sin and uncleanness is open now.

Payments Made In Blood
MELANCHOLY satisfaction is to be found in the claim that Ohio's automobiles are not more deadly, proportionately, than elsewhere in the country. This fact is established by comparison with other states having registration. Though fourth in population, Ohio was fifth in the number of deaths from the cause named, although the number of machines here is perhaps the largest in the United States.
Still, about two lives were rudely ended every day in the year 1929, upon which these statistics are based, the total being 717. In New York 1,410 were killed; in Pennsylvania, 1,042; in Illinois, 728 and in California, 724. Comparisons with the past show that these fatalities have doubled since 1915, the increase keeping step with the growth in the number of motor cars used. Undoubtedly there was a substantial increase in 1921.
As for injuries—minor and serious—resulting from this cause, they are to be counted only by the thousands, and the total is beyond conjecture. Only a portion is to be secured from the accident insurance companies and the hospitals, but even this fragment is illuminative in disclosing an appalling state of affairs. It is no exaggeration to repeat the assertion that this vehicle is more deadly than war itself.
There is no gainsaying the immense advantage this modern invention has furnished to humanity in a hundred different directions. This is a self-evident fact. Yet it seems that a portion of the pay for these betterments must be tendered in the form of death and suffering on the part of thousands every succeeding year. Eventually, beyond question, there will come a correction of this condition but how or when it now cannot be stated. Time and experience alone will bring about the proper adjustments and establish the new factors for the preservation of life and limb. Meanwhile the terrible toll to speed and human carelessness is taken.

Filling a Great Need
THE NEWS believes that if one were in a position to fill the query "what does the church do for the country?" and the entire country were able to give assurance that unless the answer were favorable you would be in a position to close the doors of all the churches and bring to a termination all church activities you would get a general response from agitated millions.
These millions, no matter whether they have church affiliations or not, would not want the church to be put out of business. The real estate man, the merchant, the banker, the manufacturer, the farmer, the laborer, the judge, the lawyer, the student and the philosopher would all come begging you to keep the doors open. No sensible man would want to live in any community in the United States from which had been removed all the constructive safeguards which civilization receives from the church.
Men love to find fault with it and doubtless it isn't all it ought to be but when you come to answer the question as to what the country would do without it you simply can't answer it.

TWO HUSBANDS, THREE WIVES GIVEN DIVORCES
Mrs. Stella First of Salem, was granted a divorce by Judge Moore Friday from Clyde S. First, the decree being entered on grounds of extreme cruelty.
A cross petition filed by the defendant in the case was dismissed by the court and the alimony question was settled out of court. The parties were married at Salem in 1901 and have no children.
Harry Johnson of Columbiana, was given a divorce from his wife, Alice to whom he was married 20 years ago in Youngstown. Their only child, a son, is now 18 years old. The divorce was granted because of the wilful absence of the wife, Johnson stating to the court that she has been absent from home since 1911.
Mrs. Nora George presented her application for a divorce from John George and the same was granted. The Georges were married in Sebring on May 12, eight years ago, and there were no children born to them. The wife charged failure to provide and stated that her husband left her a little over two years ago.
The divorce action of Charles W. Heim of Leontonia, against Anna Oehle Heim, which was heard by Judge Worley a few days ago and taken under advisement, was granted by him on Friday, the marriage being annulled. Heim has been ordered by the court to pay the defendant $200 alimony. The parties were married last September in Lisbon and have been living near Leontonia.
Mrs. Margaret O. Easterday of East Liverpool, was given a divorce in court from Grover Easterday on grounds of gross neglect of duty and failure to provide a home. The wife also charged extreme cruelty stating to the court that he had struck her several times.

CORN AND SOYBEANS AS COMPANION CROPS
That soybeans may be profitably grown with corn for silage or other feed is shown by an extensive series of experiments conducted on the State University farm at Columbus by specialists of the department of farm crops, and reported in the May-June monthly bulletin of the Ohio Experiment station, Wooster. In making the tests, corn and soybeans were planted alone and in combinations, both in drills and checked rows, and at different dates and rates of seeding.
"The only practical way of combining corn and soybeans," the authors state, "is to drill the two together in the same row at the same time." This should be done early at the usual rate for corn, with the beans added at the rate of 4 to 6 inches in the row, using 4 to 12

TWO TAX AMENDMENTS FRAMED FOR ELECTION
Columbus, April 28.—Proposed taxation amendments to the constitution, one limiting the rate on real estate to 15 mills and the other limiting the rate on personal property to 10 mills, which are to go on the ballot in November. If enough signatures are obtained, they have been whittled into final shape. It was announced here today by John E. McCree, secretary of the committee in charge.
The object according to McCree is to put Ohio on a "pay-as-you-go" basis in expenditures and taxation. The taxation amendment authorized rates in excess of 15 mills by a vote of the people, gives the legislature power to do away with the uniform rule or retain it as it chooses; provides for a budget commission on which cities and schools, as well as counties, are represented.
The debt limitation amendment provides that no bonds shall be issued for current expenses and that assets and improvement must be paid for during the period of their usefulness.

HOPES TO REFORM FIRST OFFENDERS

ATTORNEY GENERAL HAS A PLAN FOR PENAL INSTITUTION AT CAMP GRANT, ILL.

WOULD RECLAIM YOUNG MEN

Early Experience of Mr. Daugherty Leads Him to Believe Most of Them Can Be Brought Back to Honest Lives.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—A good many years ago Attorney General Daugherty, then a lawyer in private practice, became interested in four boys who appeared in court charged with a first and somewhat trivial offense. He intervened for them, sentence was suspended and later through the instrumentality of Mr. Daugherty the boys were given a chance to make good. All of them rose to responsible positions in life. They made good.

It seems likely that this personal interest in first offenders and in the chance of their salvation has induced the chief law officer of the government to recommend that an industrial and penal institution shall be established at Camp Grant, Ill., for convicted first offenders against the federal law. President Harding has given the plan his sanction.

The bare news of the proposal already has been printed. It may not be uninteresting to know that criminologists think that, if the records could be obtained in full and studied carefully, it would be found there are fewer young second offenders against the federal law than there are against the state laws.

Of course nearly every federal law has a state law somewhat similar to it and perhaps a better way to put the matter would be to say that the belief seems to be that in proportion to numbers, more first offenders who have served terms in federal prisons are reclaimed than first offenders who have served their terms in state prisons.

Look Lightly on Some Laws.

There are certain offenses against the federal law which to some easy-going minds do not appear to be offenses at all. Men and women who would not steal a postage stamp, even if its theft was to save them a walk of five miles to a post office, will try to beat the government's tariff laws and are not at all conscience-stricken apparently when they succeed in beating its prohibition laws.

There are hundreds of first offenders against the federal government who have looked at certain of the statutes as having been made to be broken. There probably are a great many young men in the federal prisons who do not realize today that their crime really was a crime. Instead of being criminals some of these young men simply have a warped moral viewpoint. This seems to be understood by some of the present prison officials of the government and by men in office elsewhere.

It seems likely that the attorney general is overconfident when he says nine out of ten of the first offenders can be reclaimed. There probably is no such record of salvation as this to be found in any of the reformatory institutions in the United States. It is said that straightaway prisons where close confinement and hard labor are the rules do not reform a fifth of their inmates. If state reformatories are able to bring back into the fold of grace one-half of the black sheep which have broken away, the officials probably consider that their work justifies itself many times over.

Danger of Favoritism.

It has not yet been decided whether the recommendation for the legislation to make the Camp Grant institution possible shall include in it a provision that the first offenders shall be sent by the courts to existing federal prisons, or whether the offenders shall be sent direct to the reformatory.

There seems to be a division of opinion in this matter. If the matter of the selection of federal prisoners in the regular institutions for transfer to the reformatories shall be left in the hands of the wardens, favoritism may play its part. On the other hand, if this course is followed an opportunity would be given to determine which of the prisoners are best fitted for early reformatory methods.

If all the first offenders are to be sent to the reformatory direct from the scene of sentence it might receive them past reform and whose example would make difficult the reformation of others more susceptible to guiding influences.

It is not known yet in Washington definitely what strength of opposition will develop to the plan for turning Camp Grant into a reformatory, but it seems likely today that authority will be given for the establishment of this school prison.

The Dread Alternative.

The Old-Timer.—Yes, I've wandered over a good bit of the world, but I finally came back here, to my little old home town, 'cause I want to die here.

The Stranger.—So would I, rather than live here.

In New York.

"So they had those criminals cooped up in a house and the police freed?"

"Yes, and it's all bunk about New York policemen not being able to shoot. Plenty of them hit the house."

PAINS SO BAD WOULD GO TO BED

Two Women Tell How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Stopped Their Suffering

Iron Mountain, Mich.—"I had terrible pains every month and at times had to go to bed on account of them. I saw your advertisement and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with very good results. I can work all day long now at my sick time. You may use these facts as a testimonial and I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends."

Mrs. A. H. GARLAND, 218 E. Brown St., Iron Mountain, Michigan.

Xenia, Ohio.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of my abdomen that I could not lie quietly in bed. I suffered for about five years that way and I was not regular either. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women, so I decided to try it. It surely has helped me a lot, as I have no pains now and am regular and feeling fine."

Mrs. MARY DALE, Route 7, Xenia, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women's ailments. It is especially adapted to relieve women. If you suffer as did Mrs. Garland or Mrs. Dale, you should give this well-known medicine a thorough trial.

What God Says about-CHEMISTRY

"Though your sins be as scarlet they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool."

That's chemistry. God is here pointing to a chemical solution into which any man's sins may be poured, no matter how scarlet or how crimson, with the result that they will come out pure white. That solution is the blood of Jesus Christ, shed nearly two thousand years ago, but as effective now to change the darkness of sins to the whiteness of purity as when the dying thief alongside the dying Lord first proved its efficacy.

"Though YOUR sins"—yes, yours, my friend.

And more than that, there is no chemistry that will do it. And if you go into eternity with your sins scarlet, instead of white, there's judgment and eternal death for you. But you need not do so, for the fountain for sin and uncleanness is open now.

Isa. 1:18.

A Quality Statement
The economical value of paint should be estimated by dividing the total cost of painting and repainting in a given period by the number of years of service, thus obtaining the average cost per year of paint and painting. The measure or value of a paint is not what you pay for a gallon, but what that gallon will do. It costs you as much to apply a poor paint as a good one, and the cost of application is much more than the cost of material used.
We are here to serve you with Lowe Brothers High Standard Paint, the very best paint made.

The Grant Centenary

THE one hundredth anniversary of the birthday of Ulysses Simpson Grant, who ranks among the world's greatest soldiers, comes today. He was born at Point Pleasant, Ohio, April 27, 1822, and died at Mount McGregor, N. Y., July 23, 1885. He was in command of all the Union armies in February, 1864, and brought the Civil war to an end with Lee's surrender at Appomattox, April 9, 1865. He was elected President in 1868, and again in 1872.

It is well to remember gratefully the birthday of this famous captain, this simple-hearted patriot and loyal citizen.

That "Saving" Habit

Saving is a matter of habit. And the habit grows, just like the savings.

To acquire the habit when young with small sums is to practice the habit when older with larger sums.

So—encourage the little fellow to start a savings account with us at once, and watch the habit grow.

HAGENBECK CIRCUS TO SHOW IN YOUNGSTOWN

Circus day has been set for Wednesday, May 19, when the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus will exhibit in Youngstown.
From information received in advance from cities wherein the circus has already appeared this season, it is said the trained animal acts contain many new feats. The trainers spent the winter months in drilling these beasts to answer their commands and have accomplished wonders heretofore unknown.
A menagerie containing a member of every living wild animal family is being carried and is said to be one of the largest collections in the world.

Shoe Is Pinching,
Haynes' Reply To
Wet Propaganda

Washington, April 29.—Prohibition
Commissioner Haynes today issued a formal statement warning the public
"to be on guard against well defined propaganda, which seems to be nation-wide, falsely alleging that enforcement of the eighteenth amendment is failing in results."
"The trust is," Haynes declared,
"that it is being enforced and its enemies are increasing their propaganda and this fact alone is evident that the shoe is pinching."

Wonderful Spring Medicine
for the Blood

Better than for 15 or 20 years.
"I have lately taken two more bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and find myself free of all blood disorders and in the best health."
"I have taken eleven bottles in all and have gained 17 pounds in the last 10 weeks. I think Hood's the most wonderful spring medicine."
"I have never felt so well before in 15 or 20 years. I can EAT A SQUARE MEAL

having no nausea, something I have not been doing for a long time, and this is saying a whole lot when you consider how poorly I was three months ago."
"Now I can work every day, do not get all tired out every few hours, and when I get home at night I am ready for a big hot supper, and it tastes good. I advise all sick people needing a good tonic to take Hood's Sarsaparilla."

More Eye Clinics Needed
Is the old jibe to become sad truth? Is the coming American to be bald, toothless and blind?
Baldness certainly is increasing. A beginning has been made in dental hygiene. But defective vision prevails alarmingly.
The Hoover Committee on Elimination of Waste in Industry recently reported that more than half of our industrial workers are suffering from poor eyesight. Now we are told that the same ailment affects one-quarter of our school children.
This weakness of vision among school children is only in part due to intensive reading and study, though these, of course, aggravate it. Part of the trouble is found in illiterates. Heredity is also a predisposing cause.
Nineteen States—New York fortunately among them—have enacted laws requiring tests of children's eye-sight. All states should have such laws.
But more than legislation is required. In this state, especially in the rural schools, enforcement is uneven, often farcical. Eye clinics are needed everywhere and vigorous campaigns of warning among parents.
Our Examination
is more complete. We look into your eyes and diagnose the defects. Old type test cards are eliminated in our examination.

Texas Girls Succeed Siamese Twins

Violet and Daisy Hilton, 16-year-olds San Antonio (Texas) girls, are successors to the late Siamese twins. Their bodies are joined together at the base of the spine as were the bodies of Keesa and Josefa Blazek, who died recently in Chicago. The youthful twins move with astonishing rapidity and love to play outdoors.

It doesn't cost much to use Beaver Board

We can supply you with enough of this flawless manufactured lumber to remodel the average room—walls and ceiling, for about fifteen dollars. And the work of application is quickly and easily done. Little sawing, practically no waste, and no muss or litter.

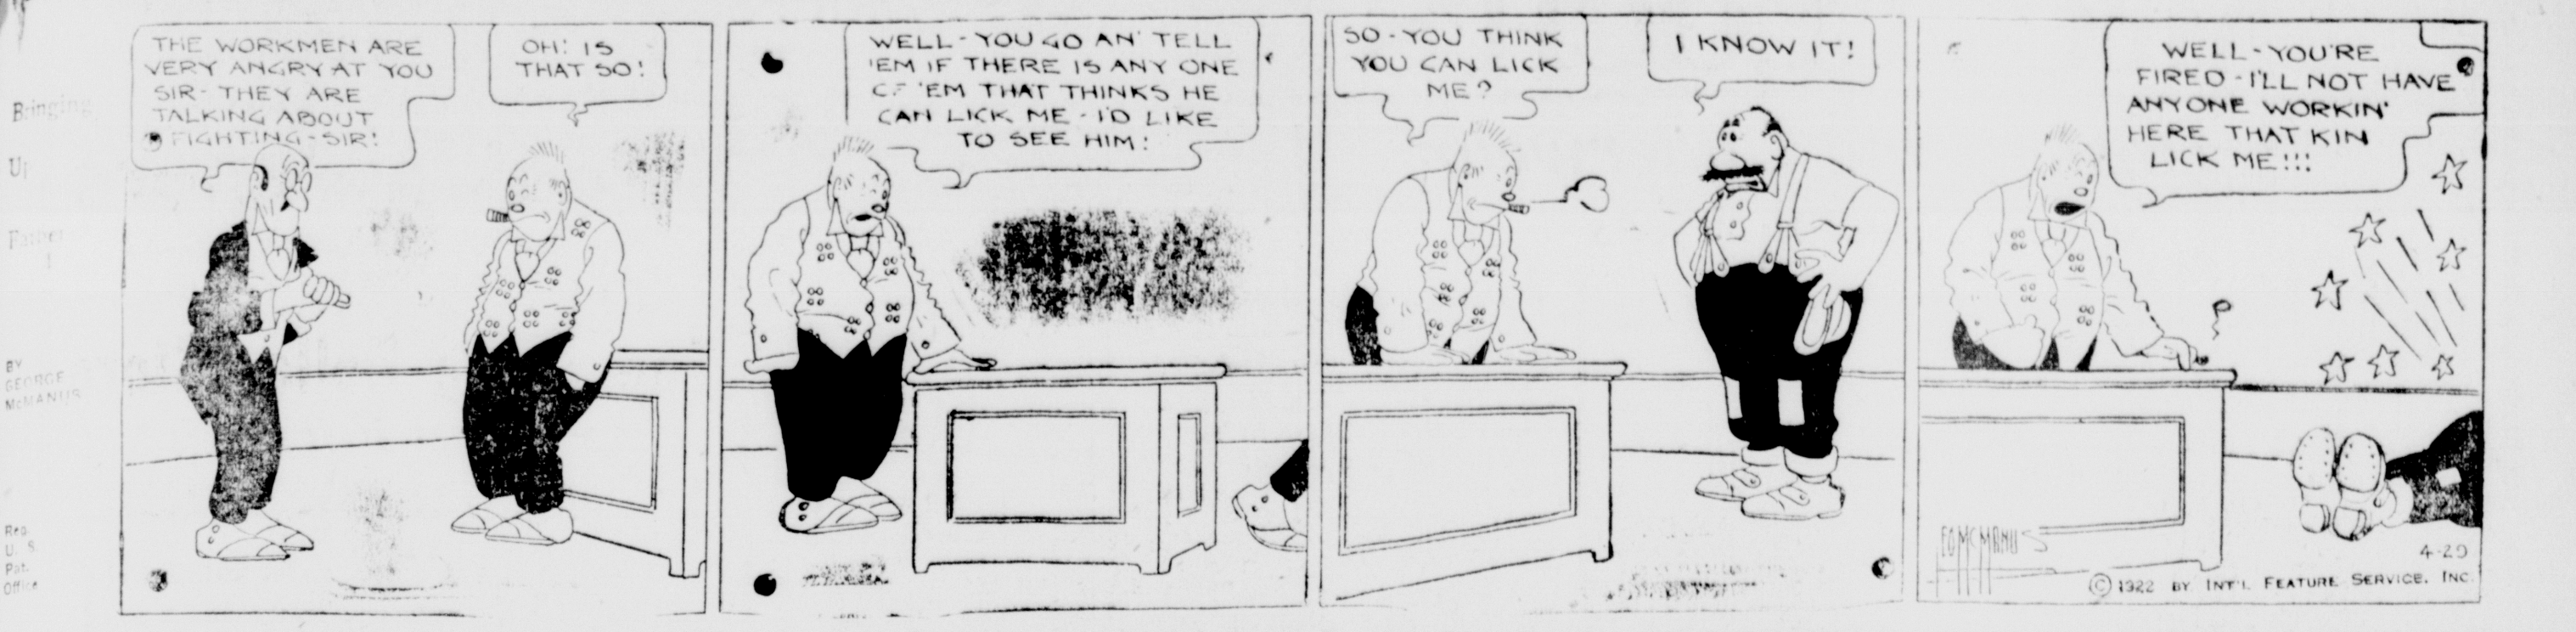

Whether you nail Beaver Board over old plaster or directly to studding in attics or unfinished rooms, the result is at once attractive and lasting. Walls and ceilings of genuine Beaver Board can't crack or fall. They never require repair. And the patented Sealite process by which the panels are sized gives you free rein in painting and decorating if you care to do either.

There are many ways in which you can use this economical building material in repair or remodeling work. Ask us to estimate on the cost of the Beaver Board you need. It places you under no obligation and you will be surprised how low our figures will be.

A phone call will bring us to your house, office, or store. Call us today.

British Booster Is Visiting
President Harding.

Not Dumb.
The Woman was calling on an acquaintance the other day. "I'll tell you what you're here," announced small daughter who opened the door at her ring. This errand over, she came into the living room, climbed up on a huge plush chair, straightened her little dress over her knees, and looked at the Woman inquiringly. The Woman, not being an adept at conversing on dolls and teddy bears, remained silent and busied herself with reading a book of verse which lay on the table. Still no signs of life from the mysterious regions upstairs. The little one cleared her throat inquiringly, but still neither spoke. Finally the child mustered up her courage, and said, "Well, why don't you say something? I can talk!"—Chicago Journal.

Gardener's Novel Theory.
Gardeners are often men of strong individual opinions, as not a few employers have discovered. But for a curious opinion, held most sincerely, commend us to a gardener working near to a celebrated aerodrome.
"It ain't the drought that has kept back the flowers and the fruit," says this theorist. "Tis them gases what come from the flying machines! They poison the air and ruin the gardens."
The gardener is quite convinced as to this cause of backwardness, so it is no use arguing with him.—London Chronicle.
